Parent Duties & Responsibilities

“Parents have the first responsibility for the education of their children... Parents have a grave responsibility to give good example to their children... Parents receive the responsibility and privilege of evangelizing their children. Parents have the mission of teaching their children to pray and to discover their vocation as children of God.” (Catechism of the Catholic Church #2223, #2225, and #2226) (Emphasis added)

As a parent, you have the primary role in the sacramental preparation process for your child. You will help your child grow in the Faith as you prepare him/her for the reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation. You and your child’s attendance at required events, and especially Sunday Mass, is vital. Even more importantly, your interest, example, witness, and prayers make a difference in your child’s decision to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation and live the Catholic life. REMEMBER, YOU ARE THEIR FIRST LOVE.

Requirements:

- Prepare your child for the decision to be confirmed through instruction, example, and prayer.
- Ensure your child goes to Mass every Sunday and all Holy Days of Obligation.
- Complete the Confirmation Information Form.
- Provide a copy of your child’s Baptismal certificate or Profession of Faith AND birth certificate to the Faith Formation Office. The parish does NOT hold physical copies of your children’s certificates; please provide these for verification. If your child was validly baptized in another denomination, please provide us with a copy of their baptismal certificate.
- Assist your child in ensuring that any class assignments are completed. Please assist the Candidate as necessary with the materials presented in the classes.
- Make sure your child fulfills the required service hours.
- Review this packet with them to prepare for the interview. Make sure to read your emails from Mrs. Brokaw or Mrs. Kenney for Sign Up Genius for the interviews. Any unfinished interviews will be held the summer before Confirmation.
- The Diocese of Arlington requires that Candidates MUST go on a Confirmation retreat within the Diocese before receiving Confirmation. It is your responsibility to find an available retreat if you cannot attend Saint Patrick’s retreat.
- Should a schedule conflict arise on the actual date of Confirmation for your family, we will work with you to reschedule your child’s Confirmation at another parish.

Candidate Duties & Responsibilities

“A candidate for Confirmation who has attained the age of reason must profess the faith, be in the state of grace, have the intention of receiving the Sacrament [of Confirmation], and be prepared to assume the role of disciple and witness to Christ, both within the ecclesial [Church] community and in temporal affairs.” (CCC, #1319)

Each candidate, with the help of his/her parents, is responsible for choosing a sponsor. It is recommended that, if possible, one of the Baptismal sponsors be the Confirmation sponsor. This choice would express clearly the relationship between Baptism and Confirmation and would make the function of the sponsor more effective.

Confirmation is one of the Sacraments of Initiation into the Catholic Church and perfects the original Baptismal grace imparted by the Holy Spirit. The confirmed are expected to worship God by taking an even more active part in the Mass on Sundays and Holy Days and to receive Confession as often as needed at least once a month and the Eucharist as often as possible when they are in the state of grace. A confirmed member of the Church is expected to strengthen and support the Body of Christ, the Church, by prayers and good works.

Requirements:

- Attend and participate in a weekly scheduled Faith Formation program or be enrolled in an approved program.
- Read and prepare notes on the book, The Case for Jesus by Dr. Brant Pitre.
Father Beres would like to see notes in the student's book OR in a notebook, but there must be content for every chapter.
- Select a sponsor. The Sponsor must then obtain a sponsor's eligibility form from their pastor or Parish Office and return it to the St. Patrick Parish Office. Should a proxy be needed, they must satisfy the same requirements as the sponsor.
- Perform service hours as outlined on Page 7 of the guidelines.
- Participate in the Confirmation Retreat. If a candidate does not attend the Diocesan-required Confirmation retreat offered at St. Patrick Parish, he/she must find and attend another Confirmation retreat within the Diocese of Arlington prior to the date of the Confirmation Mass.
- Prepare, participate, and meet the requirements of the Confirmation Interview.

The Choosing of a Patron Saint

A Confirmation saint is a special person in heaven that you will be bonded to for the rest of your life. Is that the only saint that you will learn to love in your life? NO! In your lifetime, you will fall in love with a variety of saints for various reasons. But the one you choose will be forever special.

How do you pick a saint for Confirmation? Before you start, pray to God that He guides you in picking a saint. Then there are a variety of ways to potentially pick a saint. First, you may want to continue with your Baptismal Saint; you can pick a saint because of a particular date e.g., a birthday, anniversary, or a special event. You may pick a saint because of the occupation you are currently in or want to be, e.g., doctor, lawyer, engineer, etc.

Perhaps you can pick a saint because of your current life situation: a son or daughter, student, musician, scout. And finally, you can consider a saint by the possible vocation God may be leading you to for example married, single, or religious.

The Confirmation saint chosen should serve the Candidate as patrons and models for life. So, the saint selected should be chosen because of the life and struggles that led them to holiness. Find out more about your Confirmation Saint's life. When you have a saint, use the guide that follows to help you learn more about your saint. Fill in the information below:

Saint's Name: _____ Feast Day: _____

Saint's place of birth: _____ Symbol for the Saint: _____

Find out something about the Saint's life: Family: _____

Occupation: _____ When was the Saint born: _____

How did the Saint die and his/her date of death: _____

What virtues did this Saint practice in his/her life? _____

How is this saint a model for Christians today?

Ask your parents how they picked your given name and baptismal name at birth? Then write a brief history about what you found out below.

What aspects of their Christian life attracted you? _____

The Case for Jesus: The Biblical and Historical Evidence for Christ
By Dr. Brant Pitre

New to our Faith Formation program in 2026, our Pastor, Father Beres, instituted the reading of this title in place of a saint report and letter to the bishop, which were previous requirements.

Each student will be issued a copy of this book at the beginning of their Confirmation Year 2 (grade level 7) to read.

- For each chapter: students should do the following:
 - Either underline or
 - highlight passages, quotes, etc. that are interesting or important to them,
 - make notes on their selections.

Christian Charity as an Act of Service

Part of the Confirmation charism is charity to the community. The purpose of performing the Service Project is to build the virtue of charity in students and their families.

The Faith Formation Office will coordinate with the Parish Music Director for the following service events:

1. Advent Missalette removal and replacement
2. Lent Missalette removal and replacement
3. Ordinary Time Missalette removal and replacement

*There will be a Sign-Up Genius for these three events.

Saint Patrick School will take place during school day*

Confirmation Interview Questions & Answers

“Bishops are ‘beyond all others the ones primarily for catechesis, the Catechists par excellence.’ As chief catechist in the diocese, the bishop is responsible for the total catechetical mission of the local church. Catechesis is one of the fundamental tasks of the bishops’ ministry” (National Directory for Catechesis #54).

It is with this mandate that I put forth the following questions and answers to assist the faithful in preparation for the reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation. It is my firm desire that all Catholics know and live the Catholic Faith to the fullest. The content below is divided into three main focus areas: Faith, Worship, and Witness. —Bishop Michael Burbidge

Each candidate will be interviewed. As a minimum for the interview, they are to know the answers to the following questions. This interview is to be completed before the Sacrament of Confirmation is administered.

Faith: God is revealed to us through Sacred Scripture & the teachings of the Catholic Church.

1. Define the mystery of The Trinity. (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 253-255)

The Blessed Trinity is the central mystery of our Catholic faith. There are three Divine Persons in one God: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

When you bless yourself, how can you be more aware that you are invoking the Trinity?

2. Where can we find the teachings of the Catholic Church (CCC 95)

The teachings of the Catholic Church can be found in Scripture, Tradition (precepts of the faith continuously transmitted from the Apostolic Church to the present day) and the Magisterium (teaching authority of the Church).

Knowledge of the teachings of the Catholic Church is essential for one being confirmed in the faith. What are you doing to gain greater knowledge of your faith?

3. What is Scripture and how do we as Catholics understand it? (CCC 101-141) Scripture is the inspired word of God as found in the Bible in human words.

How often do you read Sacred Scripture and what is your favorite book of the Bible?

4. What are the four Marks of the Church? Briefly explain. (CCC 813-870)

The four marks of the Church are Only, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic. The Church is One because of her source, foundation, and bonds of unity in Christ. The Church is Holy because she is united with Christ, Who through the Church sanctifies all people making possible holiness in life. The Church is Catholic in that the church is universal (all people in all times and all places) The Church is Apostolic because she can trace her teaching and authority back to the Apostles and thus to Christ.

How have you experienced that the Church is “One” when you have worshipped in different parishes?

5. When did Jesus' disciples first experience the gift of the Holy Spirit? How does Sacred Scripture describe the event? (CCC 731-732)

The Holy Spirit came upon the disciples on the feast of Pentecost, fifty days after Easter. "When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim." (Acts 2: 1-4)

What are the signs that tell you that the Spirit is alive in your life?

6. Name the Ten Commandments.
(CCC 2083-2557)

1. I am the Lord your God: you shall not have strange gods before me.
2. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.
3. Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day.
4. Honor your father and mother.
5. You shall not kill.

6. You shall not commit adultery.
7. You shall not steal.
8. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
9. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife.
10. You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

Two Commandments of Love: Matthew 22:36-40, "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?" And He said to him, "'you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the great and [a]foremost commandment. The second is like it, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets."

How does your family honor the third Commandment? Is the order of the Commandments important?

7. What are the three central teachings of our Church concerning the Blessed Virgin Mary? (CCC 490-493, 966)

The three central teachings of our Church concerning the Blessed Virgin Mary are:

Immaculate Conception: Mary was conceived without original sin.

Perpetual Virginity: Mary was and remained a virgin—before, during, and after the birth of Jesus

The Assumption (Mary was assumed body and soul into heaven).

What about Mary inspires you and makes you want to imitate her?

Worship: We encounter God through prayer and the Sacraments both as the Body of Christ and as individuals who have been baptized into life in Christ

1. What is a Sacrament? (CCC 1113-1131)

A Sacrament is an outward (visible) sign instituted by Christ to give grace.

Which Sacraments have you already received?

2. Name the seven Sacraments. List the Sacraments of Initiation, the Sacraments of Healing, and the Sacraments of Service. (CCC 1210-1211)

The seven Sacraments are Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Penance, Anointing of the Sick, Holy Orders, and Matrimony.

The Sacraments of Initiation are Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist.

The Sacraments of Healing are Penance and Anointing of the Sick.

The Sacraments of Service are Holy Orders and Matrimony.

How can you show greater appreciation for the gift of the Sacraments?

3. How is Christian initiation brought about through the Sacraments? (CCC 1212)

Christian initiation is accomplished by means of the Sacraments which establish the foundation of the Christian life. The faithful born anew by Baptism are strengthened by Confirmation and nourished by the Holy Eucharist.

What does "being initiated" mean? How does initiation apply to your faith?

4. How does the bishop confirm? (CCC 1299)

The bishop extends his hands over a person to be confirmed and calls upon the Holy Spirit. He then confers the Sacrament by laying hands upon the head of each candidate, anointing the forehead with the sacred chrism, and saying: "(Name)...be sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit." Candidate responds "Amen." Bishop says, "Peace be with you." Candidate responds, "And with your Spirit."

Think about the name you will choose for Confirmation. What are the qualities of that saint that you wish to imitate?

5. What is sacred chrism and why is it used? (CCC 1293-1296)

Sacred chrism is oil mixed with fragrance and consecrated by the bishop; it is used for anointing in the Rite of Confirmation. Anointing, in the Biblical and other ancient symbolism, is rich in meaning: oil is a sign of abundance and joy; it cleanses, limbers and heals, since it is soothing to bruises and wounds. Oil makes radiant with beauty, health, and strength.

Choose one of the above benefits of oil. How does this connect to your life at this particular moment?

6. Why does the bishop anoint in the form of the cross? (CCC 1303)

The bishop anoints the forehead in the form of a cross to remind us that we belong to Christ and that we must defend our faith with gratitude for Christ's redeeming death on the cross.

What difference in your life does it make that you belong to Christ?

7. What is the Paschal Mystery? (CCC 1067, 654)

The Paschal Mystery is Christ's work of redemption accomplished principally by his Passion, death, Resurrection, and glorious Ascension. The Paschal Mystery has two aspects: by his death, Christ liberates us from sin, and by his Resurrection he opens for us the way to new life.

How are you strengthened and comforted by the Paschal Mystery?

8. How is Christ present in the Eucharistic species? (CCC 1374, 1375)

Jesus Christ is present in the Eucharistic species in a unique and incomparable way. He is present in a true, real, and substantial way in His Body and Blood, together with His Soul and Divinity.

What does the gift of the Eucharist mean to you?

9. What is prayer? (CCC 2558-2565)

Prayer is turning the heart toward God. When a person prays, he enters in to a living relationship with God.

At what times during the day do you pray?

10. What are the various ways to pray? (CCC 2699-2721)

The various ways to pray are vocal prayer, meditation, and contemplative prayer. All three ways of prayer presuppose recollecting one's mind and heart.

What is your favorite way to pray and why?

11. Name the Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious, and Luminous mysteries of the Rosary. Briefly explain them.

Joyful Mysteries: Annunciation, Visitation, Nativity, Presentation in the Temple, Finding of the Child Jesus after Three Days in the Temple.

Sorrowful Mysteries: Agony in the Garden, Scourging at the Pillar, Crowning with Thorns, Carrying of the Cross, Crucifixion and Death.

Glorious Mysteries: Resurrection, Ascension, Descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, Assumption of Mary, Crowning of the Blessed Mother as Queen of Heaven and Earth.

Luminous Mysteries: Baptism at the Jordan, Miracle at Cana, Proclamation of the Kingdom, Transfiguration, Institution of the Eucharist.

Which mysteries of the rosary do you most like to pray? Why?

Witness: We live in the world as Disciples of Christ who are called to share the Good News through service and evangelization.

1. Name the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. Describe them briefly. (CCC 1831)

(WiCKPUFF) Wisdom. Counsel. Knowledge. Piety. Understanding. Fortitude. Fear of the Lord.

Wisdom helps us to know God's will for our lives.

Counsel aids us in making right judgments.

Knowledge allows us to come to know God better, that we may have a personal relationship with Him.

Piety assists us in being more prayerful, reverent, and holy.

Understanding enables us to appropriate the faith to make it our own.

Fear of the Lord is a holy and healthy awe and reverence for God, the creator of heaven and earth.

Fortitude helps us to be courageous in the defense of our faith.

What gift of the Holy Spirit do you most greatly need at this time? Why?

2. Name the twelve fruits of the Holy Spirit. (CCC 1832)

The twelve fruits of the Holy Spirit are charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity.

Which fruit do you admire most in someone in your family?

3. What is conscience? How do we develop a well-informed conscience? (CCC 1776-1780, 1795-1797, 1799-1800)

Conscience is our God-given capacity to understand the law of God written on the heart of every human being. In building our relationship with God, we form our conscience in harmony with the teachings of Christ through the Church and through fervent prayer. An upright and true moral conscience is formed by education and by assimilating the Word of God and the teaching of the Church. It is supported by the gifts of the Holy Spirit and helped by the advice of wise people.

What are you doing to form your conscience?

4. What is the Sermon on the Mount? Where is it found in Sacred Scripture? What are the Beatitudes? (CCC 1716-1719) (Matthew, Chapters 5-7)

The Sermon on the Mount is the first public sermon given by Jesus Christ. It begins with the Beatitudes but contains many other exhortations on the life lived according to the will of God. The teachings of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount are the way to true happiness. By describing Jesus' own charity, they also show us how God expects us to live.

The Eight Beatitudes are:

1. Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of God.
2. Blessed are they who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
3. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land.
4. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.
5. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
6. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God.
7. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
8. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Which beatitude do you find easiest to practice? Why?

5. What is mortal sin? (CCC 1855, 1857) What is venial sin? (CCC 1862)

A mortal sin is a grave infraction of the law of God that destroys charity in the heart and constitutes a turning away from God. For a sin to be mortal, three conditions must be present: grave matter, full knowledge, and full consent of the will.

Venial sin offends and wounds but does not destroy. It weakens charity; it manifests a disordered affection for created good; it impedes the soul's progress in the exercise of the virtues and the practice of the moral good; it merits temporal punishment.

In living a Christian life, what worldly voices seek to disguise sin? Name a spiritual work of mercy that you have seen a friend or teacher practicing.

6. Define the meaning of virtues and list the four cardinal virtues and the three theological virtues? (CCC 1804-05, and 1812-29)

Virtue is the power from God to accomplish some kind of moral good. The cardinal virtues are prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance. The three theological virtues are faith, hope, and charity (love).

Why is it important to practice the cardinal and theological virtues in your life?

7. What are the seven themes of Catholic Social Teaching?

1. Right to life and dignity of the human person. 2. Call to family, community, and participation. 3. Rights and responsibilities. 4. Option for the poor and vulnerable. 5. The dignity of work and the rights of workers. 6. Solidarity we are one human family. 7. Care of God's Creation.

In this time in which we are living, which theme do you find the most important and want to find more information? This information can lead to practice.

A Framework for a Christian Life

1. What are the five precepts of the Church? (CCC 2041-2043)

1. You shall attend Mass on Sundays and on Holy Days of Obligation and rest from servile labor.

A. Solemnity of Mary, January 1

B. Ascension Thursday (forty days after Easter)

C. Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, August 15

F. Christmas Day, December 25

2. You shall confess your sins at least once a year.

3. You shall receive the sacrament of the Eucharist at least during Easter Season.

4. You shall observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church.

The Works of Mercy are charitable actions by which we aid our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities. (CCC 2447) They are acts of love, which we show to Christ in the members of His Mystical Body.

Spiritual Works of Mercy

† Admonish the sinner: Do not judge but be supportive in helping others find their way and correct their mistakes. Together we can learn to walk more closely with Christ. In humility we must strive to create a culture that does not accept sin, while realizing that we all fall at times.

† Instruct the ignorant: Learn about our faith and be open to talking with others about our beliefs. There is always something more to discover about our faith. Invite someone to go to Mass with you this weekend.

† Counsel the doubtful: Everyone has moments of doubt in their faith journey. Nevertheless, we should always remember that Christ is the Way, the Truth, and the Life and turn to him along our way.

† Comfort the sorrowful: Be open to listening and comforting those who are dealing with grief. Even if we aren't sure of the right words to say, our presence can make a big difference. Lend a listening ear to those going through a tough time. Make them a home cooked meal. Write a letter.

† Bear wrongs patiently: Accept the consequences of another's thoughtlessness or carelessness, and suffer inconveniences which another should bear. Frustrated with someone? Step away from the situation; take a few deep breaths, pray the Our Father, asking God for patience.

† Forgive all injuries: To forgive all those who have injured us in any way, even deliberately. Christ demands that His followers have great love and forgiveness for one another in imitation of His own forgiveness of His enemies as He hung on the Cross.

† Pray for the living and dead: Prayer is one of the most powerful ways we can support others. Joining together in prayer for the living and the dead entrusts us all into God's care. Request a Mass intention for a friend or family member who is going through a rough time. We will accept ½ hour increments of someone spending time in prayer, especially in church and during Adoration.

Corporal Works of Mercy

† Feed the hungry: Help others to obtain their bodily nourishment, especially those in greatest need. Share your food with a needy family, help parents cook, do dishes.

† Give drink to the thirsty: What was said of food applies to the need all have for drink i.e., give a friend a drink on a hot day; lift a child to get a drink at a fountain. Make an effort not to waste water. Remember to turn off the faucet while brushing teeth or washing dishes.

† Clothe the naked: help others with clothing, especially those who need help i.e., through clothing drives, helping with the wash, etc.

† Visit the imprisoned: besides prisoners, many suffer dangers to freedom, helping them or protecting them is an act of love e.g., protecting a little boy from the bullying of a bigger child.

† Shelter the homeless: Christ encourages us to go out and meet those without homes, affirming their worth and helping them seek a resolution to the challenges they face. Donate time or money to build homes for those who need shelter.

† Visit the sick: helping sick people in any way is an act of love i.e., running an errand, or reading to a sick person. Give blood. Spend time in a nursing home.

† Bury the dead: show respect for the dead i.e., go to funerals, cutting grass on a grave, or putting flowers on it. (New St. Joseph Baltimore Catechism #2, Lesson 15.) Send a card to someone who has lost a loved one.

2. What are the three main liturgical times of the Church Year?

1. Advent/Christmas
2. Lent/Easter
3. Ordinary

3. What are the Seven Capital Sins and their corresponding Virtues? Their extremes?

*Remember: PALE GAS.

Capital Sins	Opposite Corresponding Virtue	Opposite Extreme
Pride	Humility	Self-Loathing
Avarice	Generosity	Wastefulness
Lust	Chastity	Prudishness
Envy	Kindness or Brotherly Love	Cowardice/Timidity
Gluttony	Temperance	Deficiency
Anger	Meekness or Patience	Servility
Sloth	Diligence	Work-aholism

Encountering Christ in Prayer

Sign of the Cross: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

The Lord's Prayer: Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Grace before Meals: Bless us, O Lord, and these your gifts, which we are about to receive, from your bounty, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Apostles' Creed: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only son, Our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin, Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into Hell; the third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into Heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty. From thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Glory Be: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Fatima Prayer: O my Jesus, forgive us our sins. Save us from the fires of hell. Lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of your mercy.

St. Michael: Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Act of Contrition: O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended You and I detest all my sins because of Your just punishments, but most of all because they offend You, my God, who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of your grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen.

Guardian Angel: Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom Gods love commits me here. Ever this day be at my side, to light, to guard, to rule, to guide. Amen.

Act of Faith, Hope & Love: Jesus, I believe in you. Jesus, I hope in you. Jesus, I love you.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit: Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love.

V. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. R. And you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray. O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant us in the same Spirit to be truly wise and ever to rejoice in His consolation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Francis of Assisi Prayer: Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; it is in dying that we are born again to eternal life.

Morning Offering: O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer You my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for my sins, for the intentions of all our associates, and in particular for the intentions of our Holy Father for this month.

Angelus:

V. The angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary...

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

R. Be it done to me according to thy word.

Hail Mary...

V. And the Word was made flesh.

R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary...

V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

V. Let us pray.

R. Pour forth, we beseech thee, O Lord, thy grace into our hearts that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ thy Son was made known by the message of an angel, may by his Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of his Resurrection. Through the same Christ Our Lord, Amen

Hail Holy Queen: Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of mercy; our life, our sweetness and our hope. To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To you do we send up our sighs, morning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, your eyes of mercy toward us. And after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God; R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Hail Mary: Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death.
Amen.

Memorare: Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Regina Caeli: Queen of heaven, rejoice. Alleluia. For He whom thou didst deserve to bear, Alleluia. Hath risen as He said, Alleluia. Pray for us to God, Alleluia.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, Alleluia.

R. Because Our Lord is truly risen, Alleluia.

Let us pray: O God, who by the resurrection of Thy Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, hast vouchsafed to make glad the whole world, great, we beseech Thee, that, through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may attain the joys of eternal life. Through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen
